How Would You
Buy a Piano?

It costs lots of money to cart pianos about and leave them for months on trial. There are hundreds of pianos OUT ON TRIAL in this vicinity which will never be purchased. The only way the dealer can come out whole on such a plan is to use enormous prices for his inferior pianos. The party who buys the piano pays all this needless expense.

of the occurrence that caused a hur-caused by persons returning to their homes from a celebration in another part of the city.

SOLDIER TO THE RESCUE.

Cavalryman Post Rescues a Lawyer-Canoist.
Attorneys Reynolds Bedford and Charles Post, who spent several days fishing in Susquehanna county, have returned to the city. Mr. Bedford is being congratulated upon his narrow escape from death at Chequamegon lake.
A canoe in which he was taking exercise on Monday was capsized by heavy breakers and Mr. Bedford was thrown into the water at a locality of great depth.

Mr. Post and Mr. W. S. Mulford, of Montrose, who were weighing fish on the shore at the time, leaped into another boat, and towing to the spot, succeeded in rescuing the canoeist.
Mr. Bedford became unconscious. Mr. Bedford states that the waters of Susquehanna county are a trifle chilly yet for enjoyable bathing.

Barre Yesterday Took the First of Christian Charity.

world and took the white veil as members of the order of sisters of Christian sisters took the veil of final or perpetual vows of poverty and chastity, devoting their lives to religion and

FUNERAL OF THOMAS GRIFFIN.

Requiem Mass Celebrated in St.
Paul's Catholic Church.
The auditorium of St. Paul's church, Green Ridge, was almost inadequate in seating capacity to accommodate the large number of persons who attended the services held there for the late Thomas Griffin, whose tragic death occurred last Friday at Bradford. Many of those in attendance were from out-of-town. The Catholic Mutual Benevolent association, Sacred Heart society and Glasshovers' Beneficial association, to each of which deceased belonged, were largely represented.

The remains were borne to the church from the residence, 1515 Monsey avenue, and at 10 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated.

Rev. J. J. Griffin, of Carbondale, brother of the deceased, was celebrant; Rev. P. J. McManus, rector of St.
Paul's, was deacon; Rev. J. A. Martin was sub-deacon; and Rev. W. J. Nealon, of Carbondale, was master of ceremony. In the sanctuary were: Revs.
James Moffitt, Taylor; P. P. Quinnan, Pittston; Miles Millane, Dunmore; J.
F. Jordan, Rendham; J. M. Smouter, Olyphant; B. O'Byrne, Upper Pittston;
P. E. Lavelle, Hyde Park; George Dixon, Pittston; M. E. O'Rourke, Wilkes-Barre; and others. St. Paul's church assisted, and Miss Alice Burke sang Gounod's Ave Maria.

Rev. P. J. McManus preached the sermon. His text was from Psalm cxlii:2, "Enter not into judgment with the servant for in thy sight no man shall be justified." His words were fraught with consolation and hope.

At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Mt. Carmel cemetery, where interment was made in the family plot. The pallbearers were: Matthew Brown, Hon. M. F.
Sando, Dr. J. J. Walsh and Dr. P. J.
O'Hara, of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent association, and Patrick Langan and Eugene Smith.

MEETING OF THE
BOARD OF HEALTH

ADDED EFFORTS TO INSURE A Purer Milk Supply.

The Chief Complaint Is That the Rules of the Board at Present Permit the Feeding of Enslage—Reports Presented by the Health Officer and Secretary—Some of the Statistics That Were Contained in the Letter—Reports of the Other Officers.

Added efforts to insure a purer milk supply was determined upon by the board of health at its regular meeting last night. The matter was brought up by a complaint from the Scranton Dairy company, through its manager, George A. Goetz, and the manager of the condensing department, Charles E. Rogers.

Their chief complaint was that the rules of the board at present permit the feeding of ensilage. This, they allege, is an unwholesome food, except when it is sweet and that it cannot be kept sweet for any great length of time. In answer to questions propounded by members of the board they said that they could prove that the present rules are not being observed by all milkmen and that some of them are guilty of very flagrant violations.

A committee consisting of Dr. Bentley, Health Officer Allen and Food Inspector Cullen was appointed to confer with Messrs. Bounce and Rogers regarding the drafting of a new code of rules. On motion of Mr. Horn all milk dealers were invited to participate in the conference.

The report of Health Officer Allen was as follows:
"HEALTH OFFICER'S REPORT.
"Sixty-three nuisances were complained of; fifty-nine were abated.
The others, standing pools, cannot be disposed of until the streets are graded. The historical lakes on Beaumont avenue and Von Storch avenue, are still floating, and will continue to do so, until something is done to these streets, which have not been accepted by the city.

"Scranton street from Main avenue to the river, and Robinson street from Ninth to Scranton, are more urgently in need of sewers than any others in the city. It is simply impossible to keep this locality decent under the present conditions. The various dumping grounds are frequently complained of and every effort is made to prevent ashmen and others from depositing objections to the South side.

"I would require the presence of a watchman at each place, night and day, to make it any better.

"With Mr. O'Malley, of the board of health, I visited the bone boiling works on the Carey property, just beyond the city limits, and saw a large heap of bones. We found a cheap shanty with a stove for boiling, and in the woods nearby, what the foxes had left of the carcasses of a couple of horses. The place had evidently been abandoned for some time. I sent notice to the proprietor that he must not attempt to go on with the business. I have since been informed that he has left this part of the country.

"Very respectfully,

"W. E. Allen, Health Officer."

is considered excellent. He confiscated

THE LATEST BATTLE.

Famous Charge on San Juan Hill to Be Fought Over Again.

Realism has always been Colonel Cody's aim. He has always been able to show the public that all he exhibits is true. This time he will be no different from his former intentions, and at great expense has succeeded in arranging for a grand and correct spectacular reproduction of the heroic charge on San Juan Hill. Every detail that is necessary to carry this big undertaking through has been carefully ly gone over. The massive scenery that is to be used was painted by artists who were sent to the memorial spot for that purpose. Roosevelt's Rough Riders, who were so conspicuous in this famous battle, have been secured and will occupy the same positions on the miniature hill that they did when fighting against shells and bullets. What could be more realistic?

The colored fighters from the Ninth and Tenth cavalry, who were also participants in this charge, will also appear, in addition to Cuban Scouts and others. There will be riding by the Cowboys, Cossacks, Indians, the Queen's Own Lancers, the German Cuirassiers, Mexicans, Arabs and representatives from other nations. Over six hundred men are used in the entire performance and as many horses are required. The wonderful exhibition will appear here on Monday, May 22.

BURGLARS AT WORK AGAIN.

Three Thefts Reported to the Police Yesterday.

Three burglaries were reported to the police yesterday. The clothing store of Richards, Wirth & Lewis, at 328 Lackawanna avenue, was entered from the rear cellar door some time during Tuesday night and three pairs of check trousers and two vests taken.
The thieves were evidently boys, from the fact that the clothing was for boys from 12 to 18 years of age and selected after an examination of various piles on different tables. No attempt was made to break into the desk or safe.

A railroad tie was used as a battering ram to force the iron-barred door of an interior door, which was closed with an iron bar, was forced open by pulling the door the wrong way and breaking the hinges.

Two umbrellas and some table linen were stolen from the residence of Charles Connors, 821 Monroe avenue, during the early hours of yesterday morning. Entrance was effected through a rear cellar window. After ransacking the lower part of the house the thieves left by the kitchen door.

John Madigan's residence on Wheeler avenue, was entered Sunday morning in the way of a new coat of paint.
The thieves were seen by Caterer Mitchell for this occasion, which will be served in the Malta Temple banquet hall.
